

PLANNING FOR THE BIG DAY?

It's great to think about the best day of your life. But have you ever wondered how to prepare for the worst?

It's not something we like to talk about, or even think about, but ill health can happen to anyone. And when you're too ill to work, the last thing you'd want to worry about is where the money's going to come from. Income protection could provide you with an income if you're too ill to work.

Make sure you've got all your days covered,
for better or worse.
